

Gary Dowdy

Partner

Gary is responsible for helping clients make effective use of the Internet as a marketing, communications, collaboration and commerce channel. In addition, he is responsible for delivery of health care and green/sustainability consulting services worldwide.

Prior to his current role, Gary was Vice President of e-Business/New Media at Cardinal Health, a Fortune 20 company, where he had responsibility for the company's global public and private Web sites and other electronic channels. During his ten-year career at Cardinal Health, Gary held various e-commerce, technology, communications and marketing positions at the VP level.

Gary has a strong entrepreneurial track record. From 1988 to 1997, he was co-founder and president of two technology companies specializing in the automation of distribution centers and creation of software development products. In 1993, he received the Young Entrepreneur of the Year award, presented by the United States Small Business Administration.

Gary holds a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science Engineering from the University of Arkansas and a Master of Business Administration from the Krannert School of Management at Purdue University. He serves on the board of the Alzheimer's Association of Central Ohio and the Columbus Speech and Hearing Center. Gary also teaches an MBA class on Internet marketing at The Ohio State University.
